Since it is a residential use, no special provisions will need to be made.

The property will be used as a single family residence and will have private water and sewer.

Parking, noise, smoke, traffic, drainage, etc.

What provisions may need to be made for septic disposal. The provision water supply.